

LAS Policy on approval semester for Undergraduate Curricula

All undergraduate curricular revisions are effective the fall semester following full approval.

Students matriculating prior to that fall semester have the option of staying in the previous program. Students matriculating in that fall semester will follow the new program.

Exceptions to this process must be discussed in advance with the LAS Associate Dean for degree programs.